LUEBECK, RATHAUSTREPPE
Oilette

LL4631

1.50

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Printed in Bavaria

Lubeck is a busy commercial town on the Baltic and formerly head of the Hanseatic League. — The Rathaus or Town Hall, the staircase of which is shown in the picture, was built during the 13 – 15 th centuries and contains many valuable paintings, carvings and interesting reminiscences of the former greatness of the city. The old hall, in which the meetings of the Hanseatic Diet were held, was destroyed in 1817.

(For Address Only)

The "WIDE WORLD" Series. LUEBECK. Germany.
Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" Real Photo Series
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.

CTPA 12.9